BACKPACK BLESSING WAS JUST THAT!!!!

It is reported that 50 backpacks and supplies were given out on Sunday at the first two services, as well as some supplies given to children who brought their backpacks. Also, the office reports that they have given five backpacks and some of what supplies that were left to three different families. Thanks to all who donated, volunteered and blessed this great beginning for our students and their families.

Women's Bible Study

We have had a Thursday morning Women's Bible Study for the past few years. This has been led by Becky Clark, who helped the group make a book selection and moderated the discussions. She has chosen to "take that off her plate" with all of the other calls on her time.

Here is a great opportunity for those who have participated in this Bible study, or those who have not, but wish to. A book has not been chosen, but one participant has offered to be the leader for November, so the idea of having a rotating responsibility is a good place to begin.

Why don't we start by having those interested meet on Thursday morning, September 10 at 9:30 in Room 1?

Hand Bell Choir

Bell Choir has started back up! Come join us on Wednesdays at 5:30! This is a great time to join this group of fun loving jokesters who happen to be a choir! No music experience necessary we are willing to train new people. Playing the bells can be as easy as counting 1, 2, 3, 4!

Home Coming Sunday

Yes, we are in the last days of summer, and yes, we will be celebrating it with our "Picnic in the Street" on Sunday,

September 13 after church. And Yes, we need your help. We need canopies donated (and erected) to cover the seating, we need strong arms to help move all the tables and chairs out for seating.

We need side dishes to go with the hamburgers and hotdogs being cooked by the Methodist Men, and we need you to come...and invite your neighbors.

Drinks, condiments, table settings and ice cream are being furnished by Methodist Women.
