

We Have Bus Passes!

Due to repeated requests for transportation around town, the office has decided to invest in day bus passes! These passes were purchased through Montrose's own "All Points Transit." So the next time you meet someone who needs rides around town, send them to the office and we will give them a free pass (no questions asked) and a map of the bus routes!

We are relying on you to help us get coffee ready on Sunday mornings for the congregation to enjoy. You can find the sign up for this needed and much appreciated ministry in the kitchen window in Baldrige Hall. Check your schedule and see if there is a week that you (and a friend) can help with hospitality for Sunday morning. If you plan on helping please contact the office for the key code to the door.

Do you have questions as to how the Methodist church does things and why? Are you interested in our heritage, our connections, and our wider giving process? Come to the Methodist 101 class on October 17 from 9 a.m. to 12 p.m. in Room 1. You may decide to become a member, but it is not expected.

Missions Ministry update

Many of you have expressed an interest in how we, as a congregation, were able to help the Whittaker/Chacon family after their house fire.

Backpacks for the girls were taken immediately to the school. The office contacted the mother, Misti, and rented a storage unit for two months to store all the donated clothing and furniture.

This week, $100 was sent to the landlord to help with deposit/rent at their new place on N. 2nd.

Several persons gave money to the Pastor's Discretionary Fund to assist with our support of this family. Thank you all for your sharing spirit.

New Books (and oldies) are on display in Baldrige Hall today for check-out. Read a book before the holidays hit! Please return books to the box on the bottom shelf of the passageway left-hand bookcase.

United Methodist Women's Quilt

$1.00 donations will get you a ticket to possibly win the beautiful quilt on display in Baldrige Hall.

You can learn more about United Methodist

Women and this fall's bazaar by reading the poster on the easel next to the quilt.
