

"God's Peace for Perplexing Problems: Death is Dead"

1 Corinthians 15:51-58 November 10, 2015

Please register your ATTENDANCE

Sign up for REFRESHMENTS. Thank you!

Prayer Requests & Opening Prayer

Discussion Starter: What is your earliest memory of the death of someone close to you? What were your emotions? Did you find peace in the experience, or was it something that was troubling, or some of both?

--Read 1 Corinthians 15:51-53

1. What are your feelings about death at this stage in your life? Something to be feared? Something to be welcomed? Something else?
2. How does the above passage guide you in your thoughts about the death of others and your own death?

--Read 1 Corinthians 15:54-58

3. What comforts you most when you consider your own death? What is still hard for you to understand?
4. Look up Isaiah 25:7-8 and Hosea 13:14. How did these verses influence Paul's writing in 1 Corinthians 15:54-55?
5. What do you think heaven will be like?

Closing Prayer: Lord Jesus Christ, thank you for your love for us that conquers sin and conquers death. Lead us to continue to serve you and your people in this life, knowing that when your love flows through us, we have a miraculous glimpse of your Kingdom on this earth as it will be in heaven. In Your Name we pray. Amen.

"God's Peace for Perplexing Problems: Death is Dead"

1 Corinthians 15:51-58 November 10, 2015

Please register your ATTENDANCE

Sign up for REFRESHMENTS. Thank you!

Prayer Requests & Opening Prayer

Discussion Starter: What is your earliest memory of the death of someone close to you? What were your emotions? Did you find peace in the experience, or was it something that was troubling, or some of both?

--Read 1 Corinthians 15:51-53

1. What are your feelings about death at this stage in your life? Something to be feared? Something to be welcomed? Something else?
2. How does the above passage guide you in your thoughts about the death of others and your own death?

--Read 1 Corinthians 15:54-58

3. What comforts you most when you consider your own death? What is still hard for you to understand?
4. Look up Isaiah 25:7-8 and Hosea 13:14. How did these verses influence Paul's writing in 1 Corinthians 15:54-55?
5. What do you think heaven will be like?

Closing Prayer: Lord Jesus Christ, thank you for your love for us that conquers sin and conquers death. Lead us to continue to serve you and your people in this life, knowing that when your love flows through us, we have a miraculous glimpse of your Kingdom on this earth as it will be in heaven. In Your Name we pray. Amen.