

SAVE YOUR OUTDOOR YARD ITEMS FOR THE COMMUNITY GARDEN "YARD SALE".

Please bring yard items that you wish to donate—tools, furniture, decorations, planters, and plants (indoor and outdoor) that you are dividing. There will be strawberry plants, raspberry plants and other perennials. If you have harvested perennial seeds, bring them to share.

Contributions to the bake sale and lemonade stand or help with the yard sale would be most appreciated.

The "Yard Sale" will be from 8am-12n, Saturday, May 14. The Community Garden workshops will be from 9am-11am

United Methodist Women's weekly luncheon is Wednesday April 13 beginning at 11:30. There will a program given by Patricia London about the ways UMW uses the funds received from "A Call to Prayer and Self-Denial." An offering will be taken. Each lady is challenged to bring a quarter representing each item of make-up she is fortunate enough to possess. No reservations are required and cost of lunch is $5.00. Come and enjoy fellowship with a great bunch of ladies!

deliver a difference

We are in need of some additional - that means "new" - drivers to deliver Hot Meals to some wonderful seniors around town. Even once a month would be great!! The more drivers, the fewer times we each drive. Interested? Please call Trish Gray 209-8852 or email at pbqgray@gmail.com

The United Methodist Women Reading Program has a book that connects with Pastor Steve's new sermon series: BEING A CHRISTIAN in the Wesleyan Tradition by John O Gooch. I read it in less than 2 hours; it's not a big book, but it is really quite a good piece on "belonging, believing, living and growing" as members of the UMC. It will be back on the bookshelf later today, and is available for checking out.

Safe Sanctuaries Training

Interested in working with the children's ministry? Start your volunteering with the Safe Sanctuaries Volunteer Training! The next training will be May 1st from 1-2 p.m. in Baldrige Hall.
