Table Discussion: What did you dream of doing and being when you were a child?

Psalm 122—A song of ascents. Of David.

¹ I rejoiced with those who said to me,
“Let us go to the house of the LORD.”

² Our feet are standing in your gates, Jerusalem.

³ Jerusalem is built like a city
that is closely compacted together.

⁴ That is where the tribes go up—
the tribes of the LORD—to praise the name of the LORD
according to the statute given to Israel.

⁵ There stand the thrones for judgment,
the thrones of the house of David.

⁶ Pray for the peace of Jerusalem:
“May those who love you be secure.

⁷ May there be peace within your walls and security within your citadels.”

⁸ For the sake of my family and friends,
I will say, “Peace be within you.”

⁹ For the sake of the house of the LORD our God,
I will seek your prosperity.

1. Were you raised to be a “microscopic” person or a “telescopic” person?

2. Who have been the people who have helped you nurture God’s vision for your life?

3. Celebrating what’s right gives us energy to fix what’s wrong. Do you naturally “speak faith” or feel compelled to focus on what is wrong in life situations?

4. What life-picture is God showing you that you would like to begin putting into action?

5. Do you know the strategic action steps you must take, or do you need to connect with a strategic partner to help design a plan? What is your next step?

Closing Prayer: God of Grace and Goodness: We thank you for the plans you have for us: plans to prosper us and not to harm us; plans to give us hope and a future. Guide us to discern your perfect planning in the praying, the discussing and in the doing. In the Name of Christ and by the power of Christ we pray. Amen.
